The Nick Gainey Band has been leading worship together for 13 years. Their desire is that the church would see worship as more than just songs, but a lifestyle of responding to God's underserving grace shown at the cross. Nick's heart is first for the local church as worship leader at Crosspoint Community Church in Rockwall, TX. Outside of that, the band loves leading and equipping the global church through events on the road. Nick, the band, and their families all live in the DFW area.

Dillon Chase initially came onto the scene out of Denton TX. To summarize the driving force behind making music Dillon says; I desire that my music glorifies God, builds up believers, and evangelizes the lost. He started rapping at the age of 14 in 1999, making every effort to grow in his craft. Originally a product of a home ridden with parents who struggled with alcohol and drug addiction, Dillon was destined for a life of struggling. But in 2004, by Gods grace-Dillon recognized the importance of the redeeming blood of Christ to pay the price for his sin. He turned from serving his own selfish ambitions and submitted to the will of God. Six years later the grace of God showed evidence in his parents' life as well.
